Effective Date: 22 January 2026

1. STATEMENT OF COMMITMENT

Afghan Tours (the "Company") is committed to providing professionally managed travel experiences characterized by meticulous risk awareness, local expertise, and conservative operational decision-making. While we strive to provide the highest standard of safety, travel within Afghanistan involves inherent risks—including political instability, civil unrest, and infrastructure limitations—which cannot be fully eliminated.

2. RISK-AWARE PLANNING & INTELLIGENCE-LED ROUTES

Our operational framework is built upon proactive mitigation rather than reactive response.

- Dynamic Assessment: All itineraries are developed using real-time intelligence, seasonal security assessments, and deep-level local consultations.
- Route Authority: The Company reserves the absolute right to modify, delay, reroute, or cancel any itinerary at any time without prior notice if a route is deemed to exceed our acceptable risk threshold.
- Infrastructure Considerations: Planning accounts for local medical limitations and transport reliability, prioritizing routes with known communications and logistical support.

3. PROFESSIONAL GUIDANCE & COORDINATION

Field operations are managed exclusively by a network of vetted Afghan professionals.

- Regional Expertise: Guides are assigned based on region-specific knowledge, linguistic fluency, and local tribal/community affiliations to ensure safe passage and cultural harmony.
- Command & Control: Every tour maintains real-time coordination with our central office in Kabul. Guides are empowered to make immediate "on-the-ground" safety pivots.

4. EMERGENCY PROTOCOLS & SUSPENSION OF SERVICE

The Company maintains rigorous protocols for unforeseen contingencies.

- Operational Termination: Activities will be suspended or terminated immediately if the security environment shifts or if local authorities issue restrictive directives.
- Evacuation & Support: In the event of a medical or security emergency, the Company will facilitate the safest possible extraction to a primary hub (Kabul) or the nearest international border, subject to the constraints of the local environment.

5. CLIENT RESPONSIBILITY & CONDUCT

Safety is a collaborative effort. By booking with Afghan Tours, the client agrees to the following:

- Strict Adherence: Clients must follow all instructions provided by the Guide and the Company without exception.

- Legal & Cultural Compliance: Clients must strictly observe the laws of the de facto authorities and respect the prevailing cultural and religious norms of Afghanistan. Non-compliance that jeopardizes the safety of the group or the Company's license will result in immediate tour termination without refund.
- Documentation: Clients are responsible for maintaining valid visas, travel insurance with high-risk/war-zone coverage, and necessary permits as advised by the Company.

6. BOOKING & ADMINISTRATIVE POLICIES

- Unified Booking: For couples or domestic partners booking together, the Company provides shared accommodation arrangements. In such instances, the booking is processed as a single unit to ensure logistical cohesion and streamlined administrative billing.

- Insurance Requirement: It is a mandatory condition of travel that all clients possess comprehensive travel insurance that explicitly covers "High-Risk" regions and emergency medical evacuation.

7. LIMITATION OF LIABILITY

James Tourist & Travel Agency acts as an intermediary and facilitator. While we take every reasonable precaution, the Company shall not be held liable for injury, loss of property, or death resulting from acts of God, war, civil strife, or any other "Force Majeure" events inherent to the region.
